

This section presents the core logo variations of Halal Cash, developed to ensure consistency, clarity, and recognisability across all applications.

Each version has been carefully designed to maintain visual integrity in different contexts — from digital interfaces to printed materials and environmental branding. The system includes primary and secondary configurations, allowing flexibility without compromising the identity.